O thou, of comforters the best, O thou, the soul's most welcome guest, O thou, our sweet repose, Our resting-place from life's long care, Our shadow from the world's fierce glare, Our solace in all wees.

O light divine, all light excelling, Fill with thyself the lumost dwelling Of souls sincere and lowly; Without thy pure divinity, Nothing in all humanity, Nothing is strong or holy.

Wash out each dark and sordid stain, Water each dry and arid plain, Raise up the bruised reed, Enkindle what is cold and chill, Relax the stiff and stubborn will, Guide those that guidance need.

Give to the good, who find in thee The spirit's perfect liberty, Thy sevenfold power and love, Give virtue strength its crown to win, Give struggling souls their rest from sin, Give endless peace above.
